THE LARGEST TWO DOLLAR WEEKLY IN

THE WORLD !

FIFTY-SIX COLUMNS OF CHOICE ORIGINAL MATTER IN EACH NUMBER. SPENDIDLY ILLUSTRATED !

TWENTIETH YEAR OF PUBLICATION. A GOLDEN ENTERPRISE.

NO OTHER paper can boast of such a galaxy of talented and celebrated authors as the contributorial corps of the New York Mercury, who furnish its columns, weekly, with the most absorbing and fascinating romances and stories ever perused.

DR. J. H. ROBINSON,

NED BUNTLINE, LIEUT. J. FOSTER BRANDON, T. HAMILTON VANANDA, and R. H. NEWELL,

who are well known as the most successful and popular romancers of the age, constantly contribute their billiant novelties, for the mammoth pages of the Mercury. And each number also contains more original stories and sketches—to say nothing of an immense amount of news and general miscellany—than any other two newspapers in America, without exception. In short, the New York Mercury defies competition, and invites the most searching comparison. Its immense superiority over the little six-by-nine mushroon publications of the day will be apparent at the first glance.

Magnificent Work of History.

WHOLE LIBRARY INITSELF. 1235 Pagss-70 Maps-700 Engravings,

History of All Nations,

From the earliest Period to the Present Time, or UNIVERSAL HISTORY, In which the History of every Nation, Ancient and Modern, is separately given,

By S. G. GOODRICH, Author of "Peter Parley's Tales;" "Recollections of a Lifetime," etc.

It contains 1235 pages, royal octavo, and is Hlustrated by 70 Maps and 700 Engravings: Bound in TURKEY MOROCCO, OR CLOTH.

TWENTY-SIX THOUSAND COPIES of this elaborate work have already been sold! The flattering confidence indicated by this liberal patronage, has induced the author and publishers to revise the work thoroughly, to bring it down to the latest period, and to introduce

NEW & SUPERIOR ILLUSTRATIONS.

Thus improved and perfected, it is believed that no other Universal History can compare with this, for the fullness and accuracy of its statements, the convenience of its arrangements, the clearness, simplicity and dignity of its style, for the consequent interest which it excites, and the valuable instruction which it imparts, or for the durability and neatness of its mechanical execution.

It is believed that this work by Mr., Goodrich, will be very acceptable to the whole reading public. This is the result of years of toil and labor, assisted in his researches by several scholars of known ability, and has been got up at a great expense by the proprietors. No pains have been spared in the execution of the Illustrations and Maps, which are entirely new, propared by the distinguished author expressly for the work. Indeed, all the other historical writings of Mr. Goodrich sink into insignificance, when compared with this, the result of his riper and matuer years.—

It is admitted that One Hundred Dollars could not purchase the same matter in any other shape; and the publishers confidently expect that, in consideration of the great liteary value of the work, the large sum expended in preparing it for the press, and the exceeding moderate price at which it is offered, that it will be favorably received by every lover of good books.

CARD.

We state positively that this work is not, and will not be for sale in any bookstore in the country. It is offered only by our Soliciting Agents, one of which is the distributor of this Circutar, and by whom alone the work is sold in this locality.

BRAGG'S ARCTIC LINIMENT THIS incomparable Liniment, upon which the great mass of the afflicted of all lands now rely for relief from the pangs of Rheumatism, Neuralgea, Gout, Erysipelas, Caneer, Scrofula, Sprains, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, and all cutaneous diseases, is rapidly superseding all similar preparations. The proprietors give for the encouragement of sufferers, the following memorandum of a few of the wonderful cures effected by it during the past few months. Certificates from the parties named are in the possession of the proprietors, but their length precludes the publication of all but a few.

One Bottle Triumphant.

A little daughter of Mrs. Lee, residing on Lake street, Chicago, was scalded all over by the upsetting of a kettle of boiling water. The Arctic Liniment was applied according to the directions, and the fire was instantly extracted, and in a few days the little sufferer was yell.

Eugene Mallory, Natchez, was three years the vic-tim of a horrible tumor on the neck, which resisted all remedies until he tried the Arctic Liniment. Three bottles cured him in a few weeks.

Dr. A. G. Bragg—Dear Sir.: For more than three years I had been afflicted with inflamed eyes in an aggravated degree, and tried various Physicians, and several nostrums, to no effect; I was induced by Dr. Baum to try the Arctic Liniment, and in two months was nearly well. My little daughter was afflicted in the same manner for the same time, and during a portion of the time was entirely blind in one eye. I applied your valuable Liniment, and her eyes are now perfectly sound. Thus have I, with one two-bit bottle, cured my daughter's eyes and my own, besides curing the Rheumatism in my back. I would not be without your valuable remedy in my house.

Very truly.

This invaluable Liniment is also equally efficatious in curing the diseases of animals, as witness the following certificate: Messrs. J. & A. Arnot, and Lynch Arnot & Co., keep the two largest livery stables in the West, and are generally known throughout the United States.

Frankfort has also been engaged in the nigger trade, having bought an Ethiopian and sold the same. Frankfort has also been engaged in the whisky selling business, and still has a bar where the ardent is retailed with sugar.

· Frankfort, having failed to get rich at building Hotels and taking in travelers, buying and selling niggers, and retailing whisky, lately tried a new kind of business, viz: it has tur ed billiard-mark er. A short time since, it either bought or borrowed a wooden top billiar I table, and is now retailing that scientific sport, and healthy exercise, at 25 cts. the hundred points.

We, in our simplicity, thought that when Frankfort started its woo len topped billiard table, that it had got down low enough, but we in our timplicity were mistaken. It has taken a deeper dive, which we will proceed to relate, and which is of society, he has ever evinced that same high and absolutely true, as incredible as it may appear. Listen:

settlement from the London Times. It was octhe 25th ult., commenced by the veteran Lord Lyndhurst. This debate is most interesting.— This American born nobleman was induced to make his speech in consequence of Mr. Dallas' statement at the 4th of July dinner to the effect that the question "had been finally settled;" and that it had been said, in certain quarters, that Great Britain in this settlement had abandoned

This debate must be peculiarly interesting to such presses as the New York Evening Post and the Louisville Journal-the latter, it will be recollected, saw into a mill-stone so far as to find evidence of a want of poise in Daniel Webster's faculties in the conclusion he came to that there was no such thing as a right of visit in time of peace! Alas! for the reputation of Lord Lyndath of the reputation of Lord Lyn hurst with the Louisville Journal. He has just spoken as follows:

"Several persons in a high political position appear to think that this proceeding was not justified, and that in a point of fact we have surrendered a most valuable and important right. The answer which I make to that is, that we have sur-rendered no right, no such right as that which is contended for having ever existed. We have abandoned the assumption of a right, and in doing so we have, I think, acted justly, prudently, and wisely (Hear, hear.) Perhaps your lordships will allow me to make some observations upon the general questions, and to refer to some authorities on the subject. I would not have troubled you were it not that I think it of great importance that this question should be distinctly and finally understood and settled. The first proposition which I state is this, that by no writer on international law has this right ever been asserted; and, in the next place, I say that there is no decision of any court of justice hav ing jurisdiction to decide such questions, in which

That's just what Daniel Webster, Lewis Cass Henry Wheaton—to say nothing of others—said in 1841, and what has been repeated in 1858; and that is precisely the doctrine that the Louisville Journal set down to ignorance and dogmatism, or, something worse, on the part of Democrats.— This speech must be delightful summer reading to

But let us go on. This able statesman cites as authority Wheaton and Lord Stowell-the same

"A difficulty arises out of the frauds which may be practiced upon the high seas (hear.) It is said that the flag of America may for fraudulent purthat the flag of America may for fraudulent purposes be used by another power. How can that by possibility affect the right? How can any act on fatal consequences, it was repeated by the by possibility affect the right? How cas any act of a third power, or of the subject of a third power, affect any right on the part of the United States? By a treaty with Spain we have a right to visit and search Spanish vessels with the view of preventing the slave trade; but how can that agreement between us and Spain possibly affect the rights of America? (Hear.) But, then, what are our cruisers to do? They are placed in a most difficult position. If one of our cruisers over the cunning stitching of my collar. During most difficult position. If one of our cruisers sees a vessel with an American flag, and there is reason to believe that that flag is assumed, it must examine and inquire into the matter as well as it can. If the captain ascertains, according to the best of his judgment, that the yessel had no right to use the American flag, he may have a visit of the vessels and an examination of her papers, and if he find his suspicious correct, he may deal with that vessel in the manner in which he would be justified in dealing withit as hetween would be justified in dealing with it as between but it into my head to play the "gay deceiver" abut, and see what would become of this cool firm England and America. America would have no right to interfere; it would be a matter between the English cruisers and a vessel on the seas If it should turn out that it as an American vessel, our situation would be this: we must apologise for the cruiser's act, and we must make ample compensation for any injury that had been done (hear hears). That requires the transfer of the present time I had forsworn the tast up to the present time I had forsworn the cruiser's act, and we must make ample compensation for any injury that had been done (hear hears). That requires the present time I had forsworn the cruiser's act, and the present time I had forsworn the cruiser's hear.) That position, I understand, is not now sex as fals e and fickle; that I had seen but one who could chain my vagrant affections, and that who could chain my vagrant affections, and that one very rece, the case of a policeman who having a warrant to execute, serves it on the wrong person. That, my lords, seems to me a case perfectly analogous to that under our consideration. But, my lords, a distinction is attempted to be drawn, for which I think there is no foundation whatever, between visit and search. Visit and search are worls that always go together in our national law, but they mean what is expressed in foreign codes by the expression droit de visit.

Who could chain my vagrant affections, and that one very rece, thy; that I never knew what hap piness was until I had seen Zebdany, and much more stuff to the same effect. What, after all, is the use of a visit to a vessel if examine the papers there is a search; there is a search for the papers there is a search for the papers there is a search for the papers of ascertaining the vessel's nationality, which is an exercise of the droit de visit. But suppose a party visits a vessel in the strict sense of the word visit. What right has a person in one vessel to go on board another vessel without the consent of the master and to visit it? The case rests on the same principle that I have you don't search for papers? and the moment you had been attending lectures in this city for some the lookout day and night. To-morrow, Augustus, James, and Reuben searching is an international right—a right depending upon international law?—(hear, hear.)—
What was our conduct in 1815, after the signing

The unhappy wouth replied not a word. His of the treaty of Vienna? Lord Castlereagh appiled to the French government with a view to day the "other darlings" arrived. Reuben was it was impossible for him to issue a license to the establishment of a mutual right of visit and search. What was the answer?—"We never will consent to the establishment of a maritime police over our subjects, unless it be done under the authority of persons who are members of our own country." My lords, I think I have now established the proposition with which I set outnamely, that there is not by the law of nations any right whatever to visit or search, and that whatever arrangements we may have made with the American government on the subject we have, eves, all different." at all events, not renounced our right, inasmuch as no right of that description ever existed."

Near the close of his remarks, Lord Lyndhurst made the following handsome allusion to Mr.

"Before sitting down, my lords, I must do jus tice to the honorable gentleman who made the statement to which I have referred (Mr. Dallas) by reading the concluding words of his speech which are in perfect accordance with the high character he has obtained both in this cou and in the country which he represents-"While I think it should be accompanied also by the as-surance that the termination of that for which we have struggled for nearly half a century has been brought about with a degree of honorable candor and fair dealing on the part of the British government deserving of every acknowledgment on our part." Those words are, I say, in perfect unison and harmony with the excellent character of the honorable gentleman." (Cheers.)

In reply to Lord Lyndhurst, the Earl of Malmesbury thus clinched this matter:

"My lords, it was with great pleasure that I heard my noble and learned friend entirely confirm the opinion of the control firm the opinion of the law officers of the crown, which we of course asked for before we addres our answer to the American government on this subject. When we had to consider what reply we should make to the note addressed to us by Gen. Cass, we began by consulting the law officers of the crown, who unanimously asserted that the in ternational law on the subject was what it has ust been stated to be by my noble and learned friend Upon that opinion her majesty's govern ment acted They at once frankly confessed that there was no right of visit and search, and abandoned the claims which had been made to it.

If the opposition cavillers are not silenced by these speeches, nothing ever will silence them. Beyond a question the admirable course of President Buchanan's administration has settled forever the vexatious questions connected with the right of visit in a time of peace. The ground assumed by Lord Aberdeen, in 1841, has been entirely abandoned.

the Utica Herale, from the Holy Land, writes of a place at which he stopped, between Damascus of the press relative to his trial.—N. Y. Express. We print an able article on the right of search a place at which he stopped, between Damascus and Baalbec, thus:

It was some time after dark when I reached the pretty village of Zebdany, and paused before one of the most respectable looking of its houses. My application for lodging was smi ingly answered by a tidy little woman with a face round as the full moon, and twice as rosy. Her unveiled face and frank manner bespoke the Christian. She seen over sixteen summers; and yet a couple of bright-eyed little cherubs clung lovingly to ber maternal skirts. Presently her husband came in, bade me welcome with a heartiness that made me for the moment forget that I was in the heart of a barbarian land. Divans were spread, a came again coffee and the narghileh- and then-the blessed contentment which one finds in the East, and in the East only.

By this time the neighbors began to pour in eager to behold the phenomenon of a white Christian. The whole town seemed to have run mad. They came not singly, but in battalions. The younger and the old came; the rich and the poor; the lame and the halt and the blind. They filled the room; they jammed up the door; they peered in at the windows; they jostled each other like mad. And there I sat coolly smoking my narghileh, the "observed of all observers," receiving the congratulations of the crowd, dispensing nods and smiles like a true nabob. While Yusef kept the common herd at bay, I invited some of the "prominent citizens" to a seat on my divan : nd allowed them to whiff away my good health.— This farce of a reception having lasted some-thing over an hour, began to become something of a bore, when Yusef proposed to turn the whole crowd out of doors. To this I magnanimously demurred as not only uncivil but impolitic, as it was perhaps the last chance I should have of playing the nabob at so cheap a rate. As the evening wore away, the crowd having feasted their eyes to their full, began gradually to drop

THE new Crop of Tea is now arriving, and selling much below the high rates of the past year; the present therefore opens with the pleasing prospect of the price, as formerly. We also take pleasure in announcing that we have concluded to extend the time on small bills, heretofore sold on two and three months, to three and four months credit.

Thousands of Grocers and general Store-keepers now sell Teas in our Metallic Packages, and the number is constantly increasing, notwithstanding the strong prejudice that once existed against teas sput up in this convenient form. This unexampled success is the legitimate result of a business uniformly done, for a long term of years upon just and fair principles, and especially with an eye to that wholesome one of "SMALL PROFITS AND QUICK RTURNS."

Teas being a perishable article, dealers are recommended to order small and frequent bills.

Those who still prefer the old way, are furnished with teas in the original half-chests, at three cents per b. less than in Metallic Packages.

Washington, D. C., 7 Feb., 18f 5.

Sir: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital ractice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequent by they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious discass so obstinate that 't did not readily vield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,

Post Office, Hartland, Liv. Co., Mich., Nov. 16, 1856.

Dr. Aver.: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good that I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for menths. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterward cured her and our two children for bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars dectors bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and kenest, will be prized here.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved in crable for years. Her mother had been long grierous ly afficited with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORGRIDGE. PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief you skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on exeruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

The fine Low Pressure steamer pe a refinement of cruelty and a systematic tor-re that cannot fail to send a chill of how or through ery civilized community! This is the dark side of e picture. "A Life on the Ocean" has its sunshine he picture. "A Life on the Ocean" has its sunshing as well as its storms—its pleasures as well as its pains—and the author has most happily and forcibly presented these various phases of Jle on the great deep, in the progress of the 'Ocean' Wanderer.

The disscriptions of the manners and customs of the Natives of the 'Far-off Isles of the Sea," among whom the author passed a portion of his eventful life, are full of interest. He carries the reader throthe delightful groves where the banana and ocean and grow—and anon takes him far away into the solitary forests of Tropical fruit, which are only to be found in the Isles of that clime "where summer reigns eternal"—passing in rapid succession before his mental vision a panorama of the most gorgoous picture in the world. CHERKY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. EBEN KNIGHT, M. D.
AR MORTLEY ESO. of UTICA N. V. A.B. MORTLEY, Esq., of Urica, N. With a bad cold I should soons pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

Springfield, Miss., Feb. 7, 1856.

Brother Aten: I will cheerfully certify your Pettoral is the best remedy we possess for the cure of whooping cough, croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people.

HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE, Esq., Monteret. La, writes, 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your Pettoral by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

DOCTOR ATER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your Cherry Pectoral has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill; for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been, taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win un-precedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe. and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggisk or dison-dered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled. the best of human skill. While they produce powerful, effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicien of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints: certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:—

arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derungements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints acising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.
